

JOB OPENING

Event Producer

September 2024 / 8 hours a week

Are you interested in:

- Supporting the student community with their personal development, well-being, and life questions?
- Organizing events?
- Using your creativity to brainstorm ideas for events and make graphic designs?
- Getting to know more about the student community and their needs?
- Working in a lovely team?

Then we would love to see your application letter!

Your tasks:

- Organize events and workshops from scratch: brainstorm ideas, find collaboration partners, promote the events, handle practicalities during the events, and manage the event after-care.
- Network with other relevant organizations.
- Develop content that fits the vision of TINT, such as blogs or podcasts.

What do we expect from you?

- You are a student at TU/e, Fontys, or Design Academy.
- You are good at planning and organizing your work.
- You are flexible with your hours and can handle last-minute changes.
- You are proactive, curious, reliable, practical, flexible, and social.
- You are available for at least 1 year.
- You are both a team player and know how to work independently.
- You are responsible and take care of tasks on time.
- You know how to use social media.
- You speak English well.
- You don't mind speaking in front of an audience.

What is in it for you?

- Get to know yourself better through our life coaching tools and workshops.
- Improve many of your skills, such as communication, presenting, problem-solving, time-management, graphic design, and social media.
- Enjoy great opportunities to network within and outside the University.
- Learn how to organize an event from ideation to event aftercare.
- Explore your creativity by creating event content and appealing promotions.
- Your creativity is well appreciated, and there is a lot of room to bring in your own ideas.
- Work in a lovely team with good vibes.
- Enjoy flexibility within your hours (e.g. around exam weeks) and where you work (online vs. on campus).
- Receive a salary similar to the TU/e guidelines for student assistants.

About TINT

TINT supports students (BSc, MSc, PhD, PDEng) with their personal development, well-being, and life questions. We aim to inspire students to reflect on their lives and broaden their horizons. We value inclusivity and welcome all religions and cultures, encouraging students to meet each other, connect, inspire, and learn from each other. We do this by hosting events and workshops, creating content like blogs and podcasts, offering one-on-one life coaching, and taking care of our WhatsApp community. Our events are often in collaboration with other student associations and even Studium Generale. TINT is a member of the FISO umbrella and is actively involved in its activities. FISO is the umbrella representing internationalization, inclusivity, and well-being for students in Eindhoven.

Apply now!

You can find more information about TINT on our website, Facebook, or Instagram.

Are you interested in this position? Send your CV and motivation letter by August 18th to k.a.g.drabbels@tue.nl. We'll start the first round of interviews in the week of the 26th of August.